

The World of Geography

Directions: Use the information in Chapter 1 of your textbook to match each geographic theme in the box with an example. Write the letter of the matching theme on the line before the example. Then write two more sentences that give examples of the theme.

- |                                  |             |
|----------------------------------|-------------|
| a. location                      | d. movement |
| b. place                         | e. regions  |
| c. human-environment interaction |             |

- _____ 1. The Great Plains is one of the major wheat-growing areas in the world.
_____
_____
- _____ 2. Many New Englanders made their living by fishing until the stock of some species of fish in the coastal waters became depleted.
_____
_____
- _____ 3. St. Louis lies on the western bank of the Mississippi River in east central Missouri.
_____
_____
- _____ 4. Because it lies near both the ocean and the mountains, Vancouver, British Columbia, has a mild climate with rainy winters.
_____
_____
- _____ 5. Farmers from Germany settled in hilly areas of Missouri near rivers because these areas reminded them of their homeland.
_____
_____