

NAME _____

Reading Geography

1. What are some textbook clues you can use to set a purpose for reading geography?

2. What are three things to look for when previewing a geography text?

3. What is one strategy and one tool to use for reading geography?

4. What is topic organization?

5. What are three examples of graphics that might appear in geography books?

Reading Geography

1. What is a good way to create a purpose question?
 - a. Look at the pictures.
 - b. Turn the title into a question.
 - c. Guess the purpose of the chapter.
 - d. Look at the concluding sentence.

2. What is NOT something to look for when previewing?
 - a. Supporting details
 - b. Title
 - c. Headings
 - d. Boxed items

3. The "W" in the K-W-L Chart stands for:
 - a. What I Don't Know
 - b. Why
 - c. Where the Main Point Is
 - d. What I Want to Know

4. What is in the middle of a Concept Map?
 - a. A new term or concept
 - b. A question
 - c. A conclusion
 - d. A small map

5. What is an example of a graphic that usually appears in a geography book?
 - a. Map
 - b. Cartoon
 - c. Body paragraph
 - d. Boldface term